“Lombardy is one of the most important hubs in Europe for the pharmaceutical sector. In this area are concentrated the production and the Contract Development and the Manufacturing Organizations, both representing a global reference point for the entire industry. Milan is the capital of this ecosystem, made of business and research. Internationally connected thanks to the main airports in Northern Italy and with a hotel capacity suitable to host industry professionals from all over the world, Milan is the perfect location for Pharmintech”.

Sergio Dompé
President of Pharmintech 2022

NEW LOCATION, NEW CONTEXT, MORE OPPORTUNITIES

Pharmintech is back in the spotlight in Milan, in the reference region for the Italian pharmaceutical industry.

The 2022 edition will be co-located with IPACK-IMA, the international trade show dedicated to processing and packaging solutions and materials.

A complete exhibition project that promises to be a not-to-be-missed event in terms of attractiveness and product consistency, with unique opportunities for 'cross-contamination' among different production sectors.
